

Youth Ministry Formation Live and On-Line!!

Introduction to Biblical Methodology with Adolescents (Sharing Scripture So They Get It!)

Presented LIVE on May 28 - 11:00 a.m.

If you missed it, an archived copy may be viewed beginning Monday, June 1.
Check back here for the link ... we will post as soon as it is accessible.

This webinar is an introduction to biblical methodology with adolescents. Part I of the presentation offers a brief explanation of the goal of all catechesis, what it means to encounter the Word and a glimpse of the EPIC world of biblical catechesis. Part II gives simple tips for leaders who work with adolescents and would like to start some type of Bible studies in the parish but are not sure how to get things started.

Attendee Takeaways

- Importance of biblical catechesis with adolescents
- Rethinking the way we do Bible studies: EPIC world
- Simple and concrete tips for biblical literacy

Who Should Attend

- Youth Ministers (paid/volunteers)
- Catechists who teach adolescents (13-17yrs)
- Confirmation catechists
- Middle school/High school Religion teachers

*Presenter—Juan Rendon
Program Specialist, OY&YAM*

Juan Rendon is a staff member of the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries. He is currently working on a Bible studies initiative with adolescents as well as other initiatives to foster leadership among adults who work with Hispanic youth. He is a full time instructor in the Catholic Biblical School of the University of Dallas School of Ministry. Before joining the Office of Youth Ministry he served as Parish Catechetical Leader/Youth Minister in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Dallas; RCIA director at Holy Family Church in Lindale, TX and as theology instructor/campus minister at Bishop Thomas K. Gorman High School in Tyler, TX.